
Voluntary Removal Form

About the Voluntary Form

To leave the CAHSC register you must fill in a Voluntary Removal Form. This includes a declaration stating that you are not aware of any matter which could result in an allegation regarding fitness to practise being made against you.

You must also send us your certificate of registration.

What to do next

To cancel your registration with the CAHSC and remove your name from the CAHSC register:

Step 1: Read the voluntary removal form

Step 2: Fill out, sign and date the voluntary removal form

Step 3: Return your completed form along with your registration certificate to the CAHSC office.

Our response

On receipt of your voluntary removal form and registration certificate we will:

- send you a letter of acknowledgement
- remove your name from the register
- update our records accordingly

We hope that you find the process straightforward. If you have any questions or difficulties please contact us and we will be happy to help you.
